ORDER:

Heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for Excise appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner questions the proceedings of the 1st petitioner-Superintendent, Prohibition & Excise, Saroornagar, Rangareddy District, in Memo No. B2/5715/2005, dated 30-05-2006, directing him to shift the Bar & Restaurant from the existing premises of Kamalanagar, Kushaiguda, Khapra Municipality to alternate premises. The licence itself was granted for a period of one year i.e., from 01-07-2005 to 30-06-2006.

3. This Court, while admitting the Writ Petition on 30-06-2006, granted interim stay not to insist upon the petitioner to shift to alternate premises. As the period of licence itself has been expired, I am of the opinion that the subject-matter in this Writ Petition has become infurctuous.

4. Accordingly, Writ Petition is dismissed as infructuous. No order as to costs.
